DETAILS:

On May 16, 2012, I spoke with Darin Dedo, the resident of the trailer that was entered by BBRA Scott Gribble on February 29, 2012. He is identified as the Victim on Kenwick Police Department Case No. 12-06209.

I spoke with him to inquire about the issue of whether or not it was possible for someone standing outside of his trailer to see into the living room as reported by Scott Gribble. He advised that there was sun shade blinds on the windows and that they were down during the incident involving Scott Gribble.

I also learned from Darin Dedo that he has a pet Doberman and it is trained to attack on command. He made the comment that he did not tell the dog to attack the intruder because he thought the intruder might be a police officer.

I asked him to provide responses to the same questions via e-mail. I received his e-mail when I returned to work on May 21, 2012.

1) As far as I could tell there were 2 men pounding on my doors and windows and also the walls of the trailer. 2) He kept telling me to open the door, that if I didn't I could face charges or they would see that I was kicked out of the park I live in. Both of them were saying these things. 3) The window closest to the door has a sun shade blind which keeps the sun out, it is not possible to see in with this blind down. On the window on the other side also has the same blind, but it also has drapes, so with both it would be impossible to see inside. 4) Yes, they were down at the time. 5) I didn't tell my dog to attack because I was not sure if they had weapons and also because I didn't know if they were police or not, as they had said they were during the course of the episode. I would also like to say that not one time during this event did either of these men say they were with any Bail Bonds Agency. If they had, things may have gone another way.

Thank you for speaking with me just now about what happened on the evening of February 29, 2012 when the Bail Bond Recovery Agent Scott Gribble came to your home looking for Joshua Graham.

1. How many men were pounding on your doors and demanding that you open the door?
2. What did the second man say, the one who stayed outside when they were trying to get you to open the door?
3. What kind of covering do you have for the front room windows?

4. Were there coverings over the front room windows when Scott Gribble entered your home?

5. You stated that you have a Doberman dog as a pet and that it can be commanded to attack. Why didn't you tell the dog to attack the intruder?

All of my contact information is below. Thank you for your assistance.
